

LAUREN CASEY-CLYDE

Lauren Casey-Clyde is a private low brass instructor and international performer residing in Austin, TX. She maintains an active performance career on both trombone and euphonium, that has brought her across the globe and has given her the opportunity to perform with Orchestras such as the Boston Symphony Orchestra, and with conductors such as Andris Nelsons and Bernard Haitink. She is a trombonist with Boss Street Brass Band, based out of Austin TX. She teaches a large private studio of trombone and euphonium students in Lake Travis ISD, Round Rock ISD, and Austin ISD. She also works as an instructor at the seven-time World Champion Santa Clara Vanguard Drum & Bugle Corps, and is also a marching instructor with the 2019 BOA Grand National Champion Vandegrift Viper Marching Band.